

Utah State Developmental Center

Utah State Developmental Center (USDC) provides 24-hour supervised residential care and treatment for people with severe mental, physical and developmental disabilities. In partnership with the community, USDC promotes a standard of excellence, empowering individuals and supporting independence.

SOME OF OUR SERVICES

- 24-hour residential care
- Adult services
- Medically Fragile services
- Therapeutic and clinical programs
- Forensic services
- Crisis intervention
- Outpatient assistance
- 24-hour respite care for people receiving services from Utah Division of Services for People with Disabilities (DSPD)
- Parent/Family Council

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Sherilyn Kent, 801-763-4008

Josette Harding, 801-763-4090

IF YOU NEED MORE INFORMATION

Utah State Developmental Center (USDC)

801-763-4000

Utah Division of Services for People with Disabilities (DSPD)

801-538-4200 or 1-800-837-6811, TTY 801-538-4192

DSPD Eligibility Services

1-801-538-4351

DSPD Constituent Services

801-538-4206

Utah Developmental Disabilities Council

1-800-533-3965 or 1-800-333-8824, TTY 801-533-4636, TDD 711

Disability Law Center

1-800-662-9080, www.disabilitylawcenter.org

Mental Retardation Association of Utah

801-763-4008, www.mrau.org

Quick Facts:

- 207 residents
- Intermediate Care Facility for people with Intellectual Disabilities (ICF/ID)
- Approximately 60% of the population experience seizures with a diagnosis of epilepsy
- Many of the individuals living at USDC have a dual diagnosis of mental illness and intellectual disability
- Clinical programs include medical, physical, therapy, speech, audiology, social work, psychological, dental and dietary services
- Occupational therapy and respite services for adults with Intellectual Disability diagnosis and DSPD funding
- Therapeutic programs include training centers and assistive technology
- 550 employees
- Located at 895 North 900 East, American Fork